CONDITIONS OF USE

1. Items can be booked for a maximum period of 10 working days. This includes time to transport the goods. Bookings are subject to availability.
2. A covering order number will be required to cover the goods whilst in your possession against loss.
3. If you wish us to arrange for the transport, this will be charged to you at our normal rates.
4. If goods are not returned to us by the agreed date, we reserve the right to arrange for collection, which will be charged to your account.
5. Goods must not be left unattended at customer's premises.
6. Any damage to goods outside of fair wear and tear will be chargeable.
7. The goods should be returned to us in the packaging in which they were originally supplied.

We hope that you will understand that the above conditions are to cover ourselves in the case of damaged goods being returned or delays in the return of goods.

We would, therefore, request that you sign below and fax to confirm that you are aware of the conditions and that any costs covering damage will be met. On receipt of your order number we can make the necessary arrangements.
